PennKey Username

Your PennKey username is identical to the beginning of your Wharton email address. For example, if your email address is bobsmith@wharton.upenn.edu then your PennKey username is bobsmith.

If you have forgotten your PennKey username, you can try looking yourself up in the Penn Online Directory at <https://directory.apps.upenn.edu/directory/jsp/fast.do>. If you have not restricted your public profile, you may be able to see your email address and derive your PennKey from it.

You can manage your PennKey password by using the following links:

- PennKey Self-Service Password Reset \(Enrollment Required\)
The PennKey Self-Service Password Reset allows you to reset your PennKey passwords through a non-Penn, pre-registered personal email address and/or cell phone number. After you've enrolled, you'll be able to request a password reset link be sent to your registered personal email or number.
- Change a Known PennKey Password
If you know your PennKey password and would like to change it, use the Change Known Password application to create a new PennKey password.
- Reset a Forgotten PennKey Password
If you do not remember your PennKey password and have also enrolled in the PennKey Recovery Service, you can reset your password by answering your previously filled-out security questions via the Reset Forgotten PennKey password application.
