For up-to-date information on available technology resources during the Coronavirus pandemic, see our Computing Availability During COVID-19 article.

Viewing feedback in a FeedbackFruits peer evaluation

Last Modified on 10/20/2021 11:36 am EDT

Before You Start

- You must be enrolled as a student in a Canvas course site containing a FeedbackFruits peer evaluation assigned to your course section or group.
- Your instructor must have released feedback for students to view.
- Please use a device that meets Canvas's basic computer specifications, especially one of Canvas's supported web browser versions.

Viewing feedback

1. Go to Section 3, "Read and reflect on received feedback," and click on your name.

2. To see all comments from your team members click READ under each criteria. You can also see the average ratings you received for any criteria with scales.
3. To see individual team member's responses, click FILTER next to their name.
Step 1: Follow the Bright Spots — When is Your Teammate at his/her Best When Working In Teams? This feedback will be sent, anonymously, to your teammate.

3 comments

Step 2: Employing Influence Tactics — How Can You Help Your Teammate Bring Out their Best Self More Often in Teams? This feedback will be sent, anonymously, to your teammate.

3 comments

Contributing to the Team’s Work

- Helped teammates who are having difficulty completing their work
  Read more...

4.333 out of 5

Strongly disagree

Strongly agree

Interacting with Teammates

- Communicated effectively when working with teammates
  Read more...